Regulations for the FISav Coaches’ Commission

Article 1: Purpose
The purpose of the Coaches’ Commission is to hear the expectations of coaches with regard to competitions.
As part of its duties, it also reflects on the enhancement of sports integrity, it makes proposals to this effect.
The health of athletes, in the context of their sport, a major concern of FISav, must also be part of the work of the commission.

Section 2: Composition
It is composed of 8 coaches including:
- 6 coaches, who regularly accompany athletes during official FISav competitions, following elections held by internet after applications filed with FISav.
- 2 coaches, who have participated in international competitions, invited by the President of FISav to ensure a spirit of representation of males and females of all technical disciplines and geographical membership of FISav.
A coach is elected for four years. The elections are organized by FISav.
The President of FISav is a member, by right, of this commission. He/she may also ask another member of the CDI to accompany or represent him/her.

Article 3: Operation
The committee meets every year at the World Championships (assaut or combat) or at a FISav international competition or at a FISav seminar.
Members of the Committee will nominate a chairman and a secretary at each meeting.
The languages used in the commission are English and French.
An account of the meeting will be prepared by the secretary. If necessary, votes may be made. These votes will be decided by a majority of the members present. There is no system of proxy.

Article 4: Relation between the Commission and the CDI
The chairman of the Coaches’ Commission liaises with the President to transmit the account of the meeting and give further details if required.
The report is distributed to all members of the CDI, the President will make an agenda item on the report of the commission.
At the request of the President, a representative of the Coaches’ Commission will be invited to the CDI to answer questions from members of the CDI.

Agreed by the Board of Directors (CDI) and General Assembly of FISav on October 30th 2014, in Rome, Italy

Original Text